MEMORANDUM FOR: Captain John H. Hollywood
Office of the S2
U. S. Army Intelligence Center and School
Fort Huachuca, Arizona

SUBJECT : Possible Compromise of Classified Information

REFERENCE : Central Intelligence Memorandum dated 27 October 1971, Subject: "Request for Downgrading Instructions of 'Where's What' -
Sources of Information for Federal Investigators, Prepared by [REDACTED]
Retired Security Employee, Central Intelligence Agency"

STATINTL

1. The matter of downgrading or declassifying "Where's What" was set forth in reference and for the reasons explained therein the position of the Agency has not changed.
2. Should the loss of "Where's What" result in the compromise of the material contained in the book, the damage to the security of the United States is relatively unsubstantial in keeping with its classification - Confidential.
3. The impact of the compromise of the material in "Where's What" via-a-vis the Agency cannot be determined at this time. The gravity of the compromise will depend upon the circumstances of its exposure, if and when those circumstances are openly revealed.

4. Please advise if additional information comes to your attention concerning the disposition of the lost volume of "Where's What."
